
Obituary

Siloam Springs — Dr. Karl A. M. Bergenstal, 87, died in Lincoln Tuesday night. He was born Aug. 23, 1874 in Helsinki, Finland and had lived in Lincoln for the past 17 years. He attended medical school in Kansas City, Mo., and was a Mason. Survivors are the widow, Rowena, of the home; one daughter, Mrs. Helen Strickland of Siloam Springs, and five grandchildren. Funeral will be Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Pyeatte Chapel. Full Masonic graveside-rites will be held in Oak Hill Cemetery and burial will be under direction of Pyeatte Funeral Service.

MRS. ROWENA BERGENSTAL

Siloam Springs — Mrs. Rowena E. Bergenstal, 95, of Siloam Springs died Sunday in a Siloam Springs nursing home. Born Jan. 29, 1885 at Cane Hill, the daughter of Thomas and Mary Reynolds Blackburn, she was a long time resident of Lincoln and a member of the Cane Hill Presbyterian Church. She was a retired school teacher.

She is survived by a daughter Mrs. Helen Allum of Siloam Springs, two sisters, Mrs. Julia Earls also of Siloam Springs and Mrs. Ruth Hedges of California and three grandsons.

Funeral service will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Presbyterian Church at Cane Hill with burial in Cane Hill Cemetery under the direction of Pyeatte Funeral Home.