2 Drs. Receive Chamber Award

Two of the pioneer doctors at Rogers Memorial Hospital were recognized in November by the Rogers Chamber of Commerce. Stewart M. Wilson, M.D., and W.E. Jennings, M.D., were selected as "Good Neighbors" by Rogers business leaders.

The award was presented "in gratitude for their devotion of countless hours assuring that Rogers patients received the best care possible," and for their "invaluable contributions in health care to our citizens and guidance in the development of Rogers Memorial Hospital." The presentation was made at the 57th annual Rogers Chamber Banquet Nov. 14 at the Oakdale School.

The doctors' names will be submitted in nominations in the Arkansas Community Development Awards Program next year.

Dr. Wilson, an internist, and Dr. Jennings, a surgeon, were on the original medical staff when the hospital first opened.
